

★ membership and subscription form ★

ABN: 15 211 513 464.

This form is a tax invoice for GST purposes when payment has been received.

Name:

Organisation:

Address:

DX: Location: Fax:

Phone:

Email:

★Tick here for a Subscription: 1 year, 2 years, 3 years
 Australia, Overseas
 commence my subscription from: Vol No. the next issue

★Tick here for a Membership: individual, student/concession, corporate (small), corporate (large)
 commence my membership from: February, June, October

★Payment details: Please make cheques payable to:
 Amount: Institute of Criminology, University of Sydney
 Payment method: cash, cheque, credit card

Please debit my: Bankcard, Mastercard, Visa
 Amount: Date:
 Card No.: / Expiry Date: ___ / ___
 Cardholder's Name:
 Signature:

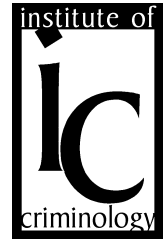

-Annual Membership Rates (Australian dollars)

Individual	$198 (including GST)
Student/concession	$80 (inc. GST)
Corporate (large)	$650 (inc. GST)
Corporate (small – under 15 employees)	$450 (inc. GST)

-Subscription rates for Current Issues in Criminal Justice (AUD)

Subscription Duration	Australia	Overseas
1 year	$110 (inc. $10 GST)	$115
2 years	$209 (inc. $19 GST)	$220
3 years	$308 (inc. $28 GST)	$325

Institute of Criminology

Sydney University Law School
 173-175 Phillip Street, Sydney NSW 2000
 tel: 61 2 9351 0239, fax: 61 2 9351 0200,
 DX: 983 Location: Sydney
 email: <criminology@law.usyd.edu.au>
 web: <www.criminology.law.usyd.edu.au/>

★ ★ ★ Membership and Subscription ★ ★ ★

The Institute of Criminology is a centre within the Faculty of Law at the University of Sydney, which was established in the early 1960s. The Institute's primary functions are teaching, research, publishing and public education on criminal justice issues.

You can participate in the Institute in the following ways:

- become a member of the Institute
- subscribe or contribute to Current Issues in Criminal Justice
- attend seminars
- read books in the Institute of Criminology Series
- join crimnet
- keep informed about Institute of Criminology activities and publications via our website: <www.criminology.law.usyd.edu.au>

Benefits of membership include:

- subscription to Current Issues in Criminal Justice
- attendance at seminars
- discounts on Institute publications
- reduced cost for back issues of the journal
- membership applications received before 30 June 2007 will receive complimentary copies of 3 issues of Current Issues in Criminal Justice.

Payments to the Institute of Criminology are tax deductible.

★Crimnet

The Institute administers CrimNet, the premier Australian electronic criminal justice information network. CrimNet uses email to provide a simple means of regular and relaxed communication between criminal justice professionals & institutions throughout Australia and internationally. To join go to <http://www.criminology.law.usyd.edu.au/crimnet.htm>.

★ Current Issues in Criminal Justice

Current Issues in Criminal Justice is the journal produced by the Institute of Criminology. It is the major Australian journal on criminal justice. Contributors include academics, researchers and professionals, who provide expert analysis of the many aspects of criminal justice. The journal discusses national and international issues, and has subscribers from many different countries and disciplines. The journal features 'Contemporary Comments' which are at the cutting edge of the crime and justice debate.

The Institute publishes 3 issues of Current Issues in Criminal Justice each year. Subscriptions to the journal are available.

★ Institute of Criminology Series

The Institute of Criminology publishes a series of critical and controversial books. Members of the Institute receive a 10% discount on all titles in the series. A catalogue of books published in the series is available from the Institute. Previous titles include:

- Indigenous Human Rights*
- Women, Male Violence and the Law*
- Bin Laden in the Suburbs: Criminalising the Arab Other*
- Global Issues, Women and Justice*
- Separated: Aboriginal Childhood Separations and Guardianship Law*
- Reshaping Juvenile Justice*
- Interrogating Images: Audio-visually recorded police questioning*

Forthcoming titles: Unlocking Resistance: State Power and Jika Jika by B Carlton; Bin Laden in the Suburbs (2nd edn) ed Poynting et al

★ Seminars

The Institute of Criminology holds public seminars. Seminars address topics of contemporary concern in fields of criminal justice and related areas. Some previously held seminars are:

- Masters of Fact and Law? A Place for Juries in Sentencing (2006)
- Australians and the Death Penalty: National and International Dimensions (2006)
- Sex Offenders and Risk Assessment (2006)
- Governance of (Anti-) Social Behaviour (2005)
- The Changing Face of Crime in Sydney: Mean Streets or Lost Suburbs? (2005)
- The Efficacy of Sex Offender Treatment Programs (2004)
- What Works in Juvenile Justice (2003)

CLE points can be claimed for seminars that are relevant to your professional development.

★ Membership of the Institute

Membership of Australia's longest established Institute of Criminology is available to individuals, public and private sector organisations (Corporate Membership) and at a discounted rate for students and concession card holders. Discounts are available for more than one year of membership.

Individual and Student/Concession Members are entitled to:

- free admission to Institute public seminars, as well as considerable discounts on admission to in-house seminars.
- subscription to the Institute's journal Current Issues in Criminal Justice.
- 10% discount off all other Institute publications, including the Institute Series, Occasional Papers and Seminar Papers.
- Individual Members can purchase back issues of Current Issues in Criminal Justice for a reduced rate of $16.50 (gst incl, + $4.40 p&h).
- Concession Members can purchase back issues of Current Issues in Criminal Justice for a reduced rate of $11.00 (gst incl, + $4.40 p&h).

Corporate Members are entitled to:

- two copies of every issue of Current Issues in Criminal Justice during their membership period.
- Libraries or resource centres of Corporate Members receive a 10% discount on Institute publications.
- Corporate members can purchase back issues of Current Issues in Criminal Justice for a reduced rate of $16.50 (gst incl, + $4.40 p&h).
- send six representatives from their organisation to Institute public seminars. Additional staff can attend at a discounted rate for registration. receive a significant discount for attendance at in-house seminars.

★ Members are encouraged to join CrimNet to receive information about Institute events. The Institute's website contains information about forthcoming seminars and events. Memberships commence from February, June or October.

★ Special Offer on Current Issues in Criminal Justice - 10 back-issues of the journal for $100!

The 10 issues 'bulk pack' consists of the 10 most recent issues of Current Issues in Criminal Justice (March 2003 – March 2006). The 'bulk pack' is available now for $100 plus postage and handling. Alternatively, a 'bulk pack' may consist of any available 10 back issues. To take advantage of this offer please contact the Institute.