

Australasian Teaching Critical Criminology Conference July 13 2007

9.00am Registration

9.15am Opening address – Chris Cunneen and Thalia Anthony

9.30am Conceptualising Crime from Critical Criminology Teaching Perspectives

Chair: Julie van den Eynde

1. Julie Stubbs
  - Critical criminological research
2. Mark Halsey
  - Explaining juvenile crime through the testimonies of young peoples
3. Dorothea Anthony
  - Challenging psychological explanations of crime

11.00am Morning tea

11.30am: Broadening Definitions of Crime

Chair: Arlie Loughnan

4. Mike Grewcock
  - State crime: some conceptual issues
5. Elizabeth Stanley
  - Teaching torture as site for state crime and a violation of international criminal laws

12:30pm Lunch

1.30pm Teaching ‘State Responses to Crime’

Chair: Murray Lee

6. John Pratt
  - Teaching punishment from contemporary, historical and sociological perspectives
7. Jude McCulloch
  - Explaining the politics of policing
8. David Brown
  - Critical penology, prisoners and citizenship: in the genre of gonzo: a road trip to the cauldron for the Roach case
9. Bree Carlton
  - Understanding Prisoner Resistance: Re-Opening a Critical Space for Subjective Exploration of the Prison Experience

3.15pm Afternoon tea

3.45pm Future directions in critical criminology

Chair: Ben Saul

10. Chris Cunneen

- Teaching restorative justice from a critical perspective

11. Barbara Ann Hocking

- Incorporating human rights into a broader criminological framework

12. Mark Findlay

- Transcending teachings of risk, security and governance from the local to the international arena

5.15pm Open discussion on futures for critical criminology

Chair: Chris Cunneen

6.00pm Drinks

7.00pm Dinner: Peking Restaurant: 7/238-242 Pitt St Sydney ($35/ 8 courses)