

COURSE MATERIALS FOR POSTGRADUATE STUDENTS

- Postgraduate students will be provided with required reading materials in an electronic format on a CD, free of charge.
- Students can check if their CD's are available for collection by visiting our website at http://www.law.usyd.edu.au/cstudent/coursework/reading_materials.shtml
- CD's can be collected from the Student Information Desk on level 3 of the Law School Building, Camperdown Campus, Monday – Friday, between hours 9am – 5pm or, alternatively, from the Old Law School Building, Phillip Street, counter on level 12 between 4pm and 6pm. For students who are unable to collect their CDs from those locations, a request can be made to have the CD posted to them by emailing law.info@usyd.edu.au and providing their Student ID number, preferred mailing address and contact details.
- Students may arrange to print their materials in hard copy from a CD at their own expense. Sydney Law School has negotiated competitive printing prices with the University Publishing Service. If you wish to order a hard-copy of materials please follow the procedure below:

- Please log-in to the University Copy Centre website at <http://www.usyd.edu.au/ucc/notes/notes.html> by using your Unikey
- The website will show a list of all the unit of study reading materials available for purchase
- You can order printed materials for a particular postgraduate unit online by using the online booking and payment form
- You can also select to have the materials posted to you at an additional postage and packaging charge
- Please allow 4 working days before collecting your materials or 4-5 working days for delivery through the post

Alternatively students may wish to take their CD Rom to a print shop of their choice to have a hard copy printed.
