presents:

Professor James Hathaway

"Refugee Solutions, or Solutions to Refugeehood?"

Thursday, 1 March
12:30 – 2:00pm

Assembly Hall, Level 4 Foyer
Sydney Law School
The University of Sydney
173-175 Phillip Street, Sydney NSW 2000

Professor James Hathaway is the James E. and Sarah A. Degan Professor of Law at The University of Michigan Law School. He is one of the world's pre-eminent experts on international refugee law. He is the founding director of the University of Michigan's Program in Refugee and Asylum Law, Senior Visiting Research Associate at Oxford University's Refugee Studies Programme, and President of the Cuenca Colloquium on International Refugee Law.

Professor Hathaway's publications include more than sixty journal articles, a leading treatise on the refugee definition (The Law of Refugee Status, 1991), an interdisciplinary study of models for refugee law reform (Reconceiving International Refugee Law, 1997) and, most recently, The Rights of Refugees under International Law (2005) – the first comprehensive analysis of the human rights of refugees set by the UN Refugee Convention.

Please RSVP to law.scigl@usyd.edu.au to ensure that your contact details are recorded on our mailing list for future events.

You are also invited to join Professor James Hathaway, Associate Professor Mary Crock and Ms Jennifer Burns in the "Refugee Workshop: Children and Refugee Protection and the Challenges of Trafficking in Persons" to be held in Lecture Theatre 5, Level 1, Sydney Law School. To register for the workshop, please contact Ms Val Carey on 02 9351 0238 or visit the Continuing Legal Education website (<http://www.law.usyd.edu.au/CLE>) for more details.
